4. Confidentiality: Tax Consultant shall during the tenure of the Contract and at any time thereafter keep all information relating to the work in full confidence and shall not, unless so authorized in writing by CSIR-IIIM, Jammu, divulge or grant access to any information about the work or its results and shall prevent anyone becoming acquainted with either through Tax consultant or its personnel or agents.
5. Terms of Appointment: The Institute reserves the right to appoint parallel Tax Consultant for Income Tax Matters (For Indirect Tax and Direct Tax).
6. Code of Integrity for Public Procurement (CIPP)
 - (i) The bidders must abide by the following Code of Integrity for Public Procurement (CIPP). Similarly, the bidders should be asked to sign a declaration about a bidding by a Code of Integrity for Public Procurement in registration applications and in bid documents. In case of any transgression of this code, its name is not only liable to be removed from the list of registered Bidders, but it would be liable for other punitive actions such as cancellation of contracts, banning and blacklisting or action in Competition Commission of India, and so on. (Rule 175(i) of GFR 2017)
 - (ii) The bidders should observe the highest standard of ethics and should not indulge in the following prohibited practices, either directly or indirectly, at any stage during the procurement process or during execution of resultant contracts:
 01. “Corrupt practice”: making offers, solicitation or acceptance of bribe, rewards or gifts or any material benefit, in exchange for an unfair advantage in the procurement process or to otherwise influence the procurement process or contract execution;
 02. “Fraudulent practice”: Any omission or misrepresentation that may mislead or attempt to mislead so that financial or other benefits may be obtained or an obligation avoided.
This includes making false declaration or providing false information for participation in a tender processor to secure a contract or in execution of the contract;
 03. “Anti-competitive practice”: Any collusion, bid rigging or anti-competitive arrangement, or any other practice coming under the purview of The Competition Act, 2002, between two or more bidders, with or without the knowledge of the Procuring Entity, that may impair the transparency, fairness and the progress of the procurement process or to establish bid prices at artificial, non-competitive levels;
 04. “Coercive practice”: Harming or threatening to harm, persons or their property to influence the participation in the procurement process or affect the execution of a contract;
 05. “Conflict of interest”: Participation by a bidding firm or any of its affiliates that are either involved in the consultancy contract to which this procurement is linked; or if they are part of more than one bid in the procurement; or if the bidding firm or their personnel have relationships or financial or business transactions with any official of Procuring Entity who are directly or indirectly related to tender or execution process of contract; or improper use of information obtained by the (prospective) bidder from the Procuring Entity with an intent to gain unfair advantage in the procurement process or for personal gain; and

06. “Obstructive practice : materially impede the investigation by the Procuring Entity into allegations of one or more of the above mentioned prohibited practices either by deliberately destroying, falsifying, altering; or by concealing of evidence material to the investigation; or by making false statements to investigators and/or by threatening, harassing or intimidating any party to prevent it from disclosing its knowledge of matters relevant to the investigation or from pursuing the investigation; or by impeding the rights of the Procuring Entity to audit or access to information;

07. “Obligations for Proactive Disclosures”:

- i. The bidders are obliged under Code of Integrity for Public Procurement to proactively declare any conflicts of interest (coming under the definition mentioned above - pre-existing or as soon as these arise at any stage) in any procurement process or execution of contract. Failure to do so would amount to violation of this code of integrity;
- ii. The bidders must declare, whether asked or not in a bid document, any previous transgressions of such a code of integrity with any entity during the last three years or of being debarred by any other Procuring Entity including the CSIR Labs/Instts. Failure to do so would amount to violation of this code of integrity;
- iii. To encourage voluntary disclosures, such declarations would not mean automatic disqualification for the bidder making such declarations. The declared conflict of interest may be evaluated and mitigation steps, if possible, may be taken by the Procuring Entity. Similarly voluntary reporting of previous transgressions of Code of Integrity elsewhere may be evaluated and barring cases of various grades of debarment, an alert watch may be kept on the bidder’s actions in the tender and subsequent contract.

08. “Punitive Provisions”

- I. Without prejudice to and in addition to the rights of the Procuring Entity to other penal provisions as per the bid documents or contract, if the Procuring Entity comes to a conclusion that a (prospective) bidder directly or through an agent, has violated this code of integrity in competing for the contract or in executing a contract, the Procuring Entity may take appropriate measures including one or more of the following:
 - (a) if his bids are under consideration in any procurement
 - (i) Forfeiture or encashment of bid security;
 - (ii) Calling off of any pre-contract negotiations; and
 - (iii) Rejection and exclusion of the bidder from the procurement process.
 - (b) If a contract has already been awarded

 - (ii) Forfeiture or encashment of any other security or bond relating to the procurement;
 - (iii) Recovery of payments including advance payments, if any, made by the Procuring Entity along with interest there on at the prevailing rate.
 - (c) Provisions in addition to above:
 - (i) Removal from the list of registered Bidders and banning/debarment of the bidder from participation in future procurements of the Procuring Entity for a period not less than one year;
 - (ii) In case of anti-competitive practices, information for further processing may be filed under a signature of the Director of the CSIR-IIIM, with the Competition Commission of India;
 - (iii) Initiation of suitable disciplinary or criminal proceedings against any individual or staff found responsible.

- II. Promise on the part of bidders not to offer any benefit to the employees of the Procuring Entity not available legally and also not to commit any offence under Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988 or Indian Penal Code 1860 (renamed as Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS)).
- III. Promise on the part of bidders not to enter into any undisclosed agreement or understanding with other bidders with respect to prices, specifications, certifications, subsidiary contracts; etc.
- IV. Undertaking (as part of Fall Clause) by the bidders that they have not and will not provide same service at prices lower than the bid price;
- V. Bidders to disclose the payments to be made by them to agents/brokers or any other intermediary; Bidders to disclose any past transgressions committed over the specified period with any other company in India or Abroad that may impinge on the anti- corruption principle;

09. Settlement of Disputes:- The CSIR-IIIM and the Bidder shall make every effort to resolve amicably, by direct informal negotiation any disagreement or dispute arising between them under or in connection with the Contract.

If, after twenty-one (21) days, the parties have failed to resolve their dispute or difference by such mutual consultation, then either the CSIR-IIIM or the Bidder may give notice to the other party of its intention to commence arbitration, as hereinafter provided, as to the matter in dispute, and no arbitration in respect of this matter may be commenced unless such notice is given. Any dispute or difference in respect of which a notice of intention to commence arbitration has been given in accordance with this Clause shall be finally settled by arbitration. Arbitration may be commenced prior to or after delivery of the job/ service under the Contract.

The dispute settlement mechanism/arbitration proceedings shall be concluded as under:

- (a) If any dispute or difference arises between the parties here to as to the construction, interpretation, effect and implication of any provision of this agreement including the rights or liabilities or any claim or demand of any party against other or in regard to any other matter under these presents but excluding any matters, decisions or determination of which is expressly provided for in this Agreement, such disputes or differences shall be referred to an Arbitral Bench consisting of three Arbitrators, one each to be appointed by each party and the two Arbitrators shall appoint a third Arbitrator who shall be the presiding Arbitrator. A reference to the Arbitration under this Clause shall be deemed to be submission within the meaning of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 and the rules framed there under for the time being in force. Each party shall bear and pay its own cost of the arbitration proceedings unless the Arbitrators otherwise decides in the Award. The venue of arbitration should be the place from where the contract has been issued i.e. CSIR-IIIM, Jammu.

Notwithstanding any reference to arbitration herein,

- ❖ the parties shall continue to perform their respective obligations under the Contract unless they otherwise agree; and
- ❖ the CSIR-IIIM shall pay the Bidder any monies due the Bidder.

10. Applicable Law: The Contract shall be interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Union of India and all disputes shall be subject to place of jurisdiction from where the Work Order has been issued.

No changes in the price quoted shall be permitted after the work order has been issued except on account of statutory variations. No variation or modification in the terms of the contract shall be made except by written amendment signed by both the parties.

11. Termination for Default

The CSIR-IIIM may, without prejudice to any other remedy for breach of contract, by written notice of default sent to the Bidder, terminate the Contract in whole or part thereof.

- (a) If the Bidder fails to deliver any or all of the service within the period(s) specified in the contract, or within any extension thereof granted by the CSIR-IIIM pursuant to contract on Extension of Time; or
- (b) If the Bidder fails to perform any other obligation(s) under the Contract.
- (c) If the Bidder, in the judgment of the CSIR-IIIM has engaged in corrupt or fraudulent or collusive or coercive practices etc. as defined in the CONTRACT TERMS Clause on code of integrity in competing for or in executing the Contract.

In the event the CSIR-IIIM terminates the contract in whole or in part thereof, he may take recourse to any one or more of the following actions:

- (a) The CSIR-IIIM may procure, upon such terms and in such manner, asset deems appropriate, stores similar to those undelivered, and the Bidder shall be liable for all available actions against it in terms of the contract.
- (b) However, the Bidder shall continue to perform the contract to the extent not terminated.

12. Force Majeure

- (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of CONTRACT TERMS Clauses relating to extension of time and Termination for Default, the Bidder shall not be liable for termination for default, if and to the extent that, its delay in performance or other failure to perform its obligations under the Contract is the result of an event of Force Majeure.
- (b) For purposes of this Clause, "Force Majeure" means an event or situation beyond the control of the Bidder that is not foreseeable, is unavoidable, and its origin is not due to negligence or lack of care on the part of the Bidder. Such events may include, but not be limited to, acts of the CSIR-IIIM in its sovereign capacity, wars or revolutions, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, and freight embargoes.
- (c) If a Force Majeure situation arises, the Bidder shall promptly notify the CSIR-IIIM in writing of such conditions and the cause thereof within 21 days of its occurrence. Unless otherwise directed by the CSIR-IIIM in writing, the Bidder shall continue to perform its obligations under the Contract as far as is reasonably practical, and shall seek all reasonable alternative means for performance not prevented by the Force Majeure event.
- (d) If the performance in whole or in part thereof or any obligations under the contract is prevented or delayed by any reason of Force Majeure for a period exceeding 60 days, either party may at its option terminate the contract without any financial repercussions on either side.

13. Termination for Insolvency

The CSIR-IIIM may at any time terminate the Contract by giving written notice to the Bidder, if the Bidder becomes bankrupt or otherwise insolvent. In this event, termination will be without compensation to the Bidder, provided that such termination will not prejudice or affect any right of action or remedy, which has accrued or will accrue thereafter to the CSIR-IIIM, Jammu.

14. Termination for Convenience

The CSIR-IIIM, by written notice sent to the Bidder, may terminate the Contract, in whole or in part, at any time. The notice of termination shall specify that termination is for the CSIR-IIIM's convenience, the extent to which performance of the Bidder under the Contract is terminated, and the date upon which such termination becomes effective.

Either party can exit from the contract after giving notice period of three months before the termination.

The service that is complete and ready shall be accepted by the CSIR-IIIM at the Contract terms and charges. For the remaining service, the CSIR-IIIM may opt:

- (a) To have any portion completed and delivered at the Contract terms and prices; and/or
- (b) To cancel the remainder and pay to the Bidder an agreed amount for partially completed service and any job previously procured by the Bidder.
